Winner – Insurance & Reinsurance, India

Neeraj Tuli is the firm's senior partner. Before setting up Tuli & Co in 2000, he was a partner at Kennedys in London. His contentious work and advice cover a wide variety of policies, including machinery damage, errors and omissions, directors' and officers' liability, advance loss of profits, erection all risks and construction all risks. He has handled litigation and arbitration in India and abroad, and is currently managing claims on behalf of insurers and reinsurers in India, the United States, Chile, the United Kingdom, Germany, Ireland, Finland, Italy, Japan, Kuwait, Dubai, Australia and New Zealand.

Mr Tuli was appointed as an arbitrator on behalf of one of India's largest public sector manufacturing and engineering companies in two energy disputes with a Russian enterprise, where his co-arbitrators are both English queen's counsel.

Mr Tuli was invited to be the first chairman of the Indian Insurance Law Association (formed in association with the International Association of Insurance Law), and is a member of the Chartered Insurance Institute's National Committee on Dispute Resolution.

What clients said

“Neeraj has one of the finest legal brains, fantastic integrity and superb turnaround times, and is great to deal with.”

“We have access to numerous first-class service providers across a range of disciplines, but Neeraj and Tuli & Co are our first choice when we have a notification that matters, particularly in relation to financial lines claims.”

“He has a great understanding of our market, which means that he can anticipate and plan for potential problems or issues that may arise. In many cases that means they are defused or their impact is minimised at the outset.”

“Neeraj understands complex claim-related issues and imparts their essence in a simple, intelligible, fast and practical way that takes into account the commercial pressures that exist.”
