

Tuli & Co has been recommended as a TOP TIER FIRM in two practice areas for 2012 in India by Asia Pacific Legal 500

Insurance: Mumbai

Tuli & Co's 'outstanding insurance practice' advises domestic and international insurers and reinsurers on issues arising from liability products, and its strong regulatory expertise is a significant part of the practice. Rajat Taimni is excellent.

Insurance: New Delhi

Tuli & Co has been at the vanguard of the insurance sector ever since its liberalisation. The practice is led by senior partner Neeraj Tuli and is aided by strong ties with UK-based Kennedys. It covers the full scope of disputes, including coverage advice and reinsurance disputes. Recently promoted partner Celia Jenkins focuses on the non-contentious elements of the practice including product review and drafting.

Tuli & Co has also been recommended in the following two practice areas:

Dispute resolution: Mumbai - Tier 4

The 'dedicated' team at Tuli & Co understands the 'broader commercial issues'. It is particularly recommended for its vast expertise in insurance-related disputes.

Dispute resolution: New Delhi - Tier 4 (up from tier 5)

Tuli & Co's dispute resolution practice includes but extends beyond insurance, for which it is best known. Senior partner Neeraj Tuli has an excellent reputation and was recently appointed as an arbitrator on two claims for one of India's largest public sector manufacturing and engineering companies.

Legal market overview

Within Legal market overview.

While full-service heavyweights such as AZB & Partners, Amarchand & Mangaldas & Suresh A. Shroff & Co, Luthra & Luthra and J Sagar Associates dominate the markets in New Delhi and Mumbai, other niche firms such as Karanjawala and Company, Tuli & Co and Anand and Anand perform well for dispute resolution, insurance and intellectual property respectively.
